

KLOV serves my community by providing music with family values. If KLOV were lost we would lose a source of entertainment and information that I can trust for my children. The citizens of my area need a radio station that they know will not include foul language and rude behaviour. Our children are bombarded with a culture that stresses profanity and destruction, we need this station!

Russ Hill